

Some People Who Recently Have Been Figuring in the World's News

MADAME CURIE.
The world's best known woman scientist and co-discoverer with her late husband of radium. Recent photograph (just arrived in America).

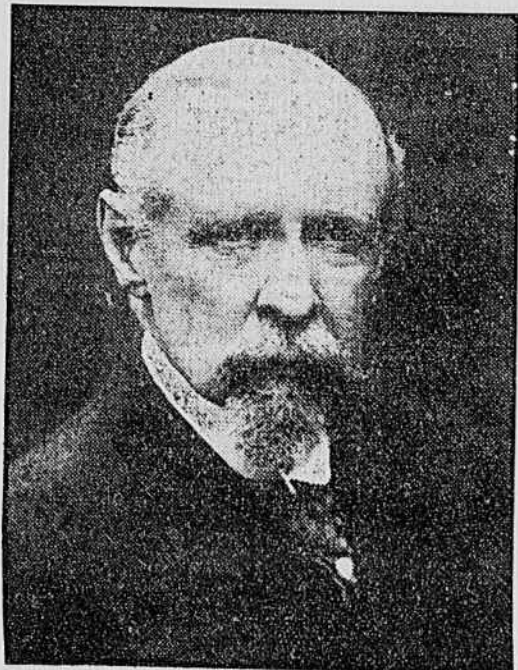

DR. ABRAHAM JACOBI.
of New York, elected president of the American Medical Association at the convention in Los Angeles.

JOSEPH H. CHOATE.
Famous lawyer, former ambassador to Great Britain, etc. (Picture made from recent photo.)

MRS. E. R. THOMAS.
Prominent in New York society, now in Europe, who is said to be about to bring suit for divorce against her husband, the well-known millionaire sportsman.

ALVEY A. ADEE.
Has been Second Assistant Secretary of the Department of State for many years, and as such holds a position corresponding to that of Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs in the British Cabinet.

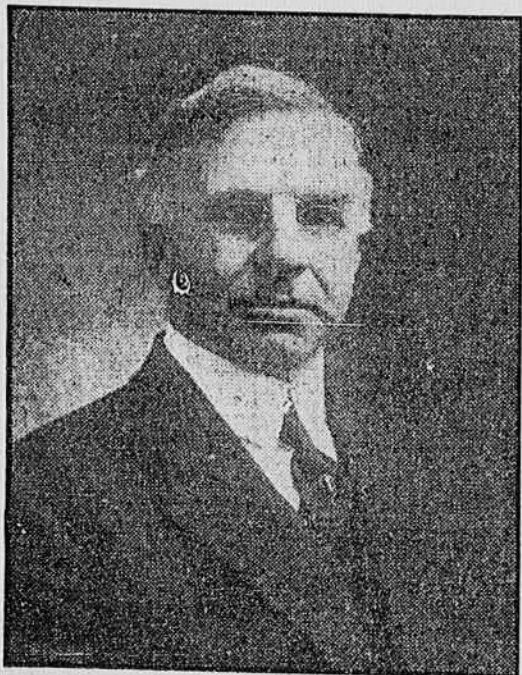

KING NICHOLAS OF MONTENEGRO.
the little Balkan country against which Turkey has been making military moves, in view of the disturbed conditions in Albania.

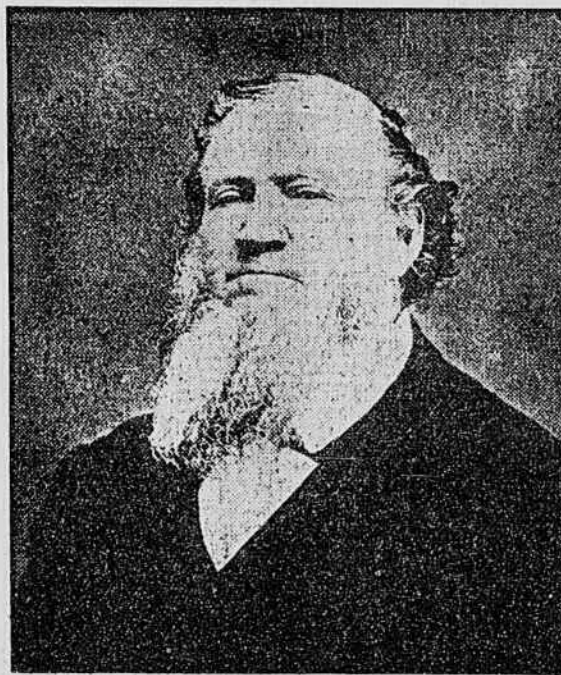

HAVELOCK WILSON.
Member of Parliament, one of the labor leaders in the English legislative body.

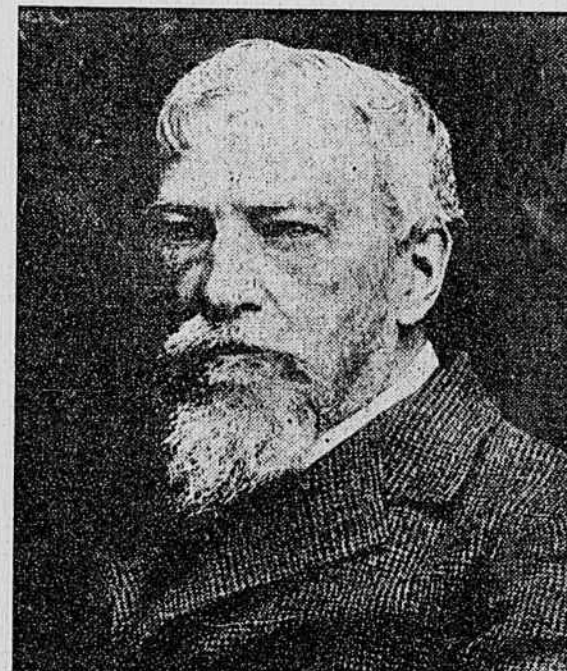

MISS SALLIE BURTON.
of Dallas, Texas, is one of the country's real heroines. A few days ago, when the telephone exchange at Longview, Texas, was destroyed by fire, she led eight girl operators to safety and then returned for the office records, narrowly escaping death.

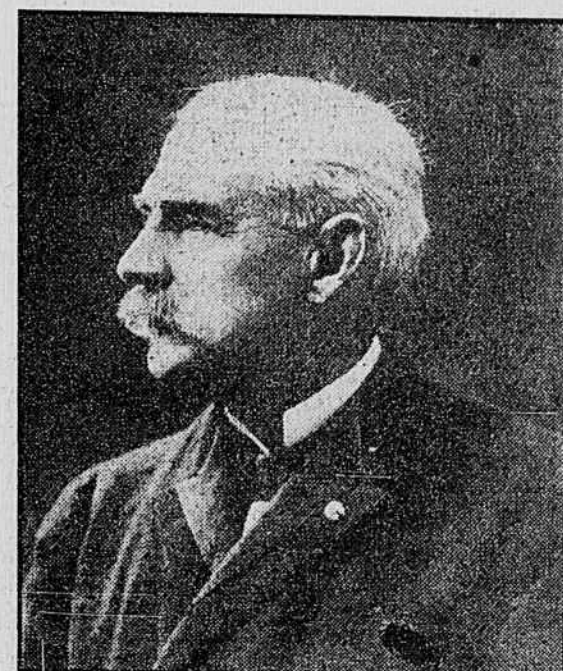

COLIN H. LIVINGSTONE.
Vice-president of the American National Bank, of Washington, D. C., who is president of the National Council and chairman of the Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America.

It is reported from Salt Lake that the organizations which have been opposing the placing of the picture of the late Brigham Young, head of the Mormon Church, on the silver of the new battleship Utah have lost their campaign.

DR. S. WEIR MITCHELL.
the famous physician and author of Philadelphia, who unites with a very high standing in the medical world his fame as a writer of poetry and fiction.

From July 6 to 12 the World's Christian Endeavor held a great convention at Atlantic City. The photograph is that of Rev. Francis E. Clark, founder of the Christian Endeavor movement.

JOHN D. SPRECKELS.
the well-known sugar man of San Francisco, who has been testifying before the congressional investigating committee.

PREMIER STOLYPIN.
of Russia, who will, it is said, give up his office because of ill health.

HOWARD M. PRUDEN.
Is the editor of the Official Register, which is a registry of all persons employed in the government.

THEODORE P. SHONTS. of New York, to be sued by his wife for separation, according to recent report.

VICE-ADMIRAL TOGO.
the famous naval leader of Japan, soon to come to America.

MADAME ADELINA PATTI.
the famous singer, who has announced her intention of touring America.